

OBITUARY

Warren H. Page, claims adjuster

Warren H. Page, 75, of Hackettstown, died Friday, Jan. 3, in Community Hospital in Hackettstown.

He was a former claims adjuster for Metropolitan Life in New York. After that, he was an editor for the Alfred M. Best Corp. in Morristown, N.J., before retiring. After retiring, he was a substitute teacher for the Hackettstown Board of Education.

Born Nov. 16, 1921, in Jackson Heights, N.Y., he was a son of the late Herbert A. and Emily Gustaveson Page. He lived in the Hackettstown area for 12 years, coming from Morristown.

He was a former member of the First Presbyterian Church in Morristown.

He was an Army veteran, serving during World War II. He was a mathematics statistician for the Manhattan Project in Los Alamos, N.M., and was a member of the Lightning Bolt Squad.

He was a 1943 graduate of Queens College, Queens, N.Y.

He was a member of Morristown United Way.

He was a local Jeopardy and Trivial Pursuit champion and was an avid fan of Wrestlemania and professional wrestling.

He is survived by a son, Warren A. of Hunterdon County; four daughters, Debra of Monterey, Calif., Wendy of Seaside, Calif., Pamela Clark of Spring Valley, Calif., and Cynthia Bogen of Ann Arbor, Mich.; his former wife, Paula R. Oreair; and five grandchildren.

Graveside services will be held at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday in Cedar Grove Cemetery in Flushing, Queens. Call 9 to 9:45 a.m. Tuesday in the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown.

The family requests memorials to the mental retardation foundation of one's choice.

Warren Page

Warren H. Page, 75, of Hackettstown, died Jan. 3 in Hackettstown Community Hospital.

He was born in Jackson Heights, Queens, N.Y., and lived in Morristown before moving to Hackettstown 12 years ago.

Mr. Page was a former claims adjuster for Metropolitan Life Insurance in New York City, and an editor for the Alfred M. Best Corp., Morristown. After his retirement, he worked as a substitute teacher for the Hackettstown Board of Education.

He was a veteran of the Army in World War II. He was a mathematics statistician for the Manhattan Project in Los Alamos, N.M., and was a member of the Lightning Bolt Squadron.

He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Morristown; member of the Morristown United Way; graduate of Queens College class of 1943; he was noted as a local Jeopardy and Trivial Pursuit champion, and was an avid fan of Wrestlemania Professional Wrestling.

Mr. Page is survived by his former wife, Paula R. Oreair; a son, Warren A. Page of Hunterdon County; four daughters, Debra Page of Monterey, Calif., Wendy Page of Seaside, Calif., Pamela Clark of Spring Valley, Calif., and Cynthia Bogen of Ann Arbor, Mich.; and five grandchildren.

Arrangements were by Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown. Graveside services were held at Cedar Grove Cemetery, Flushing, N.Y.

Memorials may be made to the mental retardation foundation of one's choice.

The Star-Gazette: January 16, 1997

Express-Times: January 5, 1997

NAME: Warren H. Page

DATE OF DEATH: January 3, 1997